The storm wave will reach this section and the other counties noted will occur at and within 48 hours of Fort Worth within twenty-four hours before or after sunset of the dates given below.April 8—Thunder and clearing.
April 9—Fair and cool.
April 10—Moderating.
April 11—Clearing.
April 12—Clearing with a shower.
April 13—Wind changing.
April 14—Cooler and clearing.The veterans at Waco found many friends that were surprised to them by books of steel. They were candidates for office.That Oklahoma judge who sent an editor to jail for contempt is finding that he has largely added to the stock of contempt lying around in the neighborhood.The Massachusetts senate refused to put the women of that state on a par with the women of Colorado in the exercise of the elective franchise.
Where, now, is Mrs. Lease?As an amendment to Senator Handerson's bill to appropriate $1,000,000 to exterminate the Russian cattle from the Northwest, we suggest a provision to rid Texas plains of the locusts.A cotton seed oil mill would furnish employment for Fort Worth capital and Fort Worth labor, while it would make a profitable market for the surplus cotton seed of the farmers of Tarrant and adjoining counties.The Chickasaw and Choctaw Indians say they are satisfied with the treaty condition and want no change.
But the Indians are not the only parties at interest. There are some millions of white people in this country who are not satisfied to have a condition of savagism in the midst of the country, and their voice may be heard at the next annual meeting of the association of civilization. He can join in the procession, if he wants to, but he must not stop it.SOUTHERN INDUSTRIES.
It will doubtless surprise some of the Gazette readers to be told that Texas outstrips Georgia in mechanical and manufacturing industries, and yet, if the census bulletins in this particular are to be relied upon, this is a fact.
Georgia reports 125 establishments and Texas 225. In value, however, the state first mentioned claims superiority, as its exports in value of plants over those of Texas is $1,000,000.
For while Georgia gives employment to nearly 60,000 laborers, Texas pays nearly $4,000,000 more to employes. Virginia and Maryland are the only two Southern states which outstrip Texas in industry, and that this state stands third on the list is conclusive proof that it is being populated by a class of men who understand that the prosperity of any state hinges on the ability of its people to supply home manufactures. These statistics are encouraging, because they point to a time not far distant when the raw material produced here will be manufactured on the spot, and the exports of manufactured articles will be largely in excess of the imports.

How does Fort Worth make an insignificant showing in the list of towns. There are here 215 industries, giving employment to 3670 persons, the pay of whom amounts to $1,947,499 annually, an amount of money distributed, as it must be, for the necessities and for some of the luxuries of life, and adds to the sum of business in a substantial and permanent way.

There is no reason why within the next few years the sum paid in wages and the number of plants in this city should not be doubled, and when the next census bulletins are issued Fort Worth, the city of our pride, should equal any city in the Southwest in investment in manufacturing establishments.THE TURN OF THE TIDE.
The inherent virtue of silver as a money metal is compelling recognition.
The experiment of discontinuing silver columns has not been satisfactory. Men who were hitherto in the habit of summing that the repeal of the silver purchase clause of the Sherman law would be followed by a speedy lifting of the pall that hid the country in financial gloom, now reluctantly admit that the remedy has not sufficed to give relief. Others there are who feel that the experiment was a costly error, but are not honest enough to confess their feeling. But, while this contending to acknowledge that the position assumed by them was wrong, they seek to get back to the condition prevailing before the repeal of the Sherman law by demanding international bimetallism.We may fairly accept Professor Francis A. Walker as the spokesman of this class, who has been the error of their ways, but are too stiff-necked to repent quickly, and are holding behind the device of bimetallism. He is a member of the International Bimettal Association of Boston, which has for members some of the leading citizens of Massachusetts.Professor Walker is the author of a tract on "Bimetallism," in which, after charging the internationalists with greed and a lack of patriotism, he says:
"What we demand is that bimetallism be made directly, distinctly, strongly to enhance the benefits and to diminish the necessary evils of international trade, and that, by consequence, with bimetallism, the trade between our country and the rest of the world be enhanced, and the benefits of trade be enhanced, and the evils of trade be diminished." In other words, he is a member of the internationalist club, and he is a member of the internationalist club, and he is a member of the internationalist club.The one of silver is a necessity because there is not enough gold to do the business of the world is another slogan of Professor Walker. "To any political economist," he says, "who repudiates the industrial structure as important, the usually shrinking of prices, continued through a term of years, due to the increasing scarcity of the money supply, constitutes a tremendous force for evil. It is not alone that tens of thousands of millions of public, private and corporate debts require a continually increasing amount of commodities to discharge the liabilities and principal of such obligations.
It is not alone that the weight of the debt-hand is continually growing heavier upon the living and laboring forces of the present, there are matters more serious enough, but the greatest part of the evil of a diminishing money supply is wrought through the discouragement of enterprise, through the diminution of legitimate profits, through the preference given to all investments of capital which result in a fixed charge upon production, over those which involve a participation in the gain or loss of active business. Look at the financial and industrial history of the past few years! Everywhere the stockholder is giving way to the bondholder; everywhere we hear of reorganizations; everywhere the mortgagee is coming into possession; everywhere the weight of the dead-hand is felt continually increasing."This is not the eager testimony of a "silver fanatic," but the reluctant confession of a man who was foremost among those who called for the repeal of the Sherman act and the discountenance of silver columns. He not only has asked for, and now he is impugning that ever.The turn of the tide is here. The ebb is running to a flow, and soon we shall have the full rush of the silver sea upon us.TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION.
Official Call for the Meeting in Fort Worth June 20, 21 and 22.Columbus, Tex., April 5.—To the Texas Press Association: By virtue of authority vested in me as president of the Texas Press Association, I hereby call the next annual meeting to convene in Fort Worth, June 20, 21 and 22, at 10 o'clock a. m., and the 23rd and 24th inclusive, at 10 o'clock a. m., as may be determined by the business of the association.As this will doubtless be the most important meeting ever held in the history of the association and to all Texas, a full and prompt attendance of the members is especially desirable.
Arrangements will be perfected for the purpose of the Texas press exhibit of the products of the state to be shown at the meeting, and the following day after the adjournment of the association, accompanied by an amateur theatrical company, to make a most enjoyable excursion.A. C. SCHULZACK, President Texas Press Association.THE GAZETTE.
The Fort Worth Gazette is greatly improved under its new management.Formerly Tribune. The Fort Worth Gazette is rapidly becoming the first paper in the state.Gainesville Messenger. The Fort Worth Gazette is improving wonderfully under its new ownership.Dallas Dispatch. The Fort Worth a newspaper in every sense of the word.Savoy Democrat. Under the new management the Fort Worth Gazette is rapidly becoming the first paper in the state.Corpus Christi Observer. It is impossible to see which marked improvements in the Fort Worth Gazette since its new management has assumedcharge. It now ranks among the best papers of the South.

Itasca Mail. The Fort Worth Gazette has improved more rapidly in the past few weeks than any daily in our country. This portion of Texas needs The Gazette, and we are glad to see it change for the better.
Goldenshoe People's Advocate. The Fort Worth Gazette continues to improve with each issue, and will, no doubt, soon assume for place at the head of Texas journalism. It is Democratic in the sense, and deserves the patronage extended to it.
Calver Citizen-Democrat. Under the new management the Fort Worth Gazette forces ahead and takes her stand among the leading dailies of the state.
It is out in a new dress and is as neat and natty as can be. The Gazette has passed through many tribulations, but has emerged at last in peaceful waters and her heading waves gladly in the breeze of success.TEXAS SETTING.

Activity Among the Populists—A Special Dispatch.Weatherford, Tex., April 6.—J. M.
Malott, chairman of the Populist party executive committee of Parker county, has issued a call instructing the Populist voters to meet in their respective precincts on the 25th of April for the purpose of selecting delegates to hold a county convention to be held the 5th of May in Weatherford, and to elect delegates to attend the state and district conventions, and to decide if advisable to put a ticket out for county officers.A reasonable rain fell here last night, just in the nick of time.At a regular meeting of the book and binder company Tuesday night, Mr. H.
N. Elderman was elected a delegate to ment of flour of the best grade to Plainfield, N. J.Mr. Dirksen's house in East Weatherford caught fire this morning, but the fire was extinguished without material damage to the house.Another Account.

Special Dispatch.Killen, Tex., April 6.—A fatal difficulty occurred here yesterday evening about 5 o'clock. J. B. Blair shot and killed Dr. W. W. McCordle in front of C. W. Leavelle's store. There had been long feeling existing between them for some time, and upon meeting Dr. Mc-Cordle drew his pistol and began shooting at Blair, who wrung his pistol out of his hand and shot and killed him.
Both parties are old citizens here. Blair is city marshal of this place.A Good Rain at Cisco.
Special Dispatch.Cisco, Tex., April 6.—Rain fell here yesterday and it is raining again today.

MR. AND MRS. CROW POISONED BY STRYCHNINE.Which, It Is Alleged, Was Put in Their Coffee and Milk by Their Two Little Boys.Special Correspondence.
Cottonwood, Tex., April 5.—Last Monday, while Mr. J. H. Crow, who resides six miles west of here, was away from home his two boys, aged 11 and 14, put strychnine in a jar of milk. Mr. Crow and his wife tasted the milk which was so bitter they could not drink it. Supposing that the cows had eaten bitter weed they paid no further attention to it.
Tuesday morning they could not drink their coffee on account of its bitterness. They, however, drank enough of it to make them both sick for an hour or two.
Mrs. Crow gave the milk to her dog and hog, and the both died in a few minutes.When the father came from work at noon, and saw that the dog and hog had died from poison, he looked in the private place where his strychnine was kept, and finding the bottle, which he called his boys. The smaller one admitted the crime, but the larger one had fled. Both are now gone, and the father has sworn out a warrant and has the officers hunting them.NEWS FROM QUANAH.
Items of News Picked Up in the Busy Little City.Special Dispatch.
Quanah, Tex., April 6.—Capt. Batley, a well known stockman residing here, was out on the streets this morning by The Gazette man, and in a short conversation with him learned that his daughter, Miss Beulah Batley, who is now 20 years old and who has been an invalid since childhood, is now being treated by a magnetic doctor and is greatly improved since beginning the new treatment. The many friends of the family and Miss Batley here will note the great change in the young lady's health with much sympathy and satisfaction.The Gazette has been the recipient of many nice compliments among its readers and friends here since the new management took control of the paper.
The very full reports of the troubles in South Carolina, and the Poland-truck inferred matter as now given daily by The Gazette are specially admired and highly complimented.Miss Stella Crockett, a daughter of Col. J. L. Crockett, is now employed as a teacher in the public schools here.
Mrs. Elder, wife of Dr. Elder, the pastor of the First Baptist church, is reported seriously sick.Several car loads of cotton seed have been received here during the past week and hauled into the county to be planted by the farmers this year.Rev. Dr. Rodgers of Vernon is holding a protracted meeting at the court house, and he is nightly greeted with a full house to hear his logical arguments.The "dignitary" now on exhibition at Hansen's drug store, is creating much talk and is daily visited by any number of both males and females who never saw one before.It is the general opinion here that Mike Callahan, who was killed in the riot at Kansas City, was a brother of Pete Callahan, now of Cripple Creek, Colorado, but formerly a citizen of A Very Pleasant Time at Comanche.

Many Present.Special Dispatch.
Comanche, Tex., April 6.—Last night the G. A. R. visited this place and were entertained by the citizens at the courthouse. About 100 of the G. A. R. and Women's Relief corps attended in a body. About 1000 persons succeeded in finding seats, and many were turned away.An address of welcome was made by the mayor, which was responded to by Col. J. C. Edgar and others. Rousing speeches were made by Comrades McCormick, Rowan and Hoch for the G. A. R., and J. B. Gillett and T. O. Moore and J.
T. Tunnell for the ex-Confederates.
The entertainment was interspersed with a variety of music, vocal and instrumental, and choice recitations. The exercises concluded with a band and drill of the volunteer fire department and a union camp fire at the courthouse, at which many amusing reminiscences of the war were repeated on both sides. The entertainment lasted until midnight. The delegates all left this morning, highly pleased with their welcome.Heavy Cattle Shipments.
Special Dispatch.Strawberry, Tex., April 6.—William Hit-son of Mineral Wells, York Texas, and Rhea, a part of this place shipped forty-five cars of cows and steers to Wagon, Kan., today. The Texas and Pacific has the best arranged yards here west of Fort Worth.Additional Mail Service.
Special Dispatch.Denison, Tex., April 6.—Commencing Monday additional mail service will be inaugurated between Sherman and this city over the Katy, giving four malls daily and making connections with north and southbound Missouri, Kansas and Texas trains out of here.Populist Chairman Resigns.
Special Dispatch.Gainesville, Tex., April 6.—C. N. Carpenter, chairman of the Populist county executive committee, has tendered his resignation as such and the committee is called to meet at this place on the 10th inst. for the purpose of selecting a new chairman. Mr. Carpenter has also resigned as president of the county Alliance, and P. Moore is now his successor.Indication of a Heavy Rain.
Dr. W. W. McCordle Shot and Instantly

SLEEPING SOUNDLY.

An Important Discovery Made by a Scientist at Short-Time Ago.A most important discovery has recently been made by a German professor that will materially improve the physical and mental strength of all who follow his lead. It is the discovery of a very simple, and as the professor claims it to be, a very easy exchange.Superiority of legend or the custom of years has had an influence upon us which is very deep and which has been as great as the like influences while we are awake. It has been vaguely understood that if we sleep with our head to the north it is better for us than pointing in any other direction, and possibly by while lying upon our left side is a certain indication we are free from heart disease, and lying upon our back is quite a certain sign that we are intending to snore.Added to these the idea has possessed us that our head must be higher than our feet, entirely overlooking the fact that the typical American, ever healthy, vigorous and good-looking, is invariably represented in foreign papers as sitting in a very low chair with his feet on the convenient upholstered sofa, and his head, as the professor claims, is at a very low angle.The professor has changed all that. He has demonstrated by a series of painstaking and careful experiments that we should sleep with the feet slightly elevated, or the head a trifle higher than the feet as he puts it, and this condition will serve about by placing pillows under the feet and none under the head.The advantages claimed by Professor Fischer resulting from this manner of lying are that the intercostal spaces is much more profound than obtained by the present prevailing method, also that amelioration of the nervous system is greater; that the effort on the system is lessened, and consequently the condition of the blood is improved and weakness of the lungs is therefore largely overcome. If in trying the effects of this position for sleeping any unpleasant sensation is experienced, the feet will be found to have been too high, and therefore they should be lowered little by little by using pillows of less thickness, until the proper height is reached, which is readily determined by the improved feeling of the sleeper.For women especially this mode of sleeping is recommended by the professor, and he claims to be in receipt of endless communications from ladies throughout Germany who have found relief in following his simple prescriptions. In an essay recently read by the professor, the advantages to the physical nature from this manner of sleeping were shown to be important and readily understood as such by the professor's address in the plain but convincing language employed.Briefly, the professor urged that the system he had described would keep the blood flowing toward the brain in consequence of a change, more rested condition upon awakening, and the heart finding satisfaction is not called upon for such hard work, and there-

CENTURY

G. A. R.

Every Grand Army man remembers well exactly what position he took in the tides of the civil war; possibly even the position of his company, at most his regiment.

G. A. R.

Reminiscences of the war form the chief enjoyment of a post meeting. Any relief, or account is welcome. Though and over told, all anecdotes are ever new.

G. A. R.

The book for every G. A. R. Post's library.
Every G. A. R. man's library, is the "Century War Book." It is made up of the famous war articles that appeared in the Century Magazine a few years ago.

G. A. R.

Readers of this paper may have this great production in its present popular form (in original bound edition is $22 to $28) at the smallest price ever asked for such a work.

It was announced a few days ago by the president of a society of hair dressers in New York that the particular style of blonde hair which is known by the name of "yellow hair" is in some quarters, and "yellow hair" is others, will not be fashionable during the coming season.
